During these strange times, we have comfort knowing that our Lord Jesus Christ is in control of everything, even the virus that has kept us home. We thank Him for keeping us safe and for continuing to provide for us. During this time, we may be apart, but we are also close to those who matter the most and to those closest to us. We need to strengthen our prayers and our time with God. Let's all ask our Lord to deal with the coronavirus, to keep us strong in faith.
